

Law Firm Solves Facility-Scheduling Needs

Client profile

Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati (WSGR) is the premier legal advisor to technology, life sciences, and growth enterprises worldwide. With eight locations in the U.S. and abroad, Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati is an AmLaw 100 firm uniquely positioned to provide the most responsive, efficient and effective legal solutions available.

Headquartered in Palo Alto, CA, members of the staff are working daily to advise more than 300 public and 3,000 private enterprises on issues of corporate law and governance, securities, litigation and intellectual property. WSGR leads the industry in representing companies in venture capital financings, initial public offerings and securities class action defense.

The challenge

Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati looked to simplify and streamline scheduling for their vast collection of rooms and resources across different locations and time zones. The firm developed an exacting set of guidelines and began to search for software alternatives that could meet its requirements.

The criteria included simple, intuitive functionality, universal access at all levels of the company and its geographic locations, complete tracking of expenses across all levels for account reconciliation and flexible reporting.

Challenge

Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, a prestigious AmLaw 100 firm, sought for a way to simplify and streamline its booking and scheduling needs across time zones and locations. The firm demanded an all-in-one solution that was easy to implement and use and that provided sophisticated and customizable scheduling capabilities.

Solution

Meeting Room Manager met and exceeded WSGR's requirements. Bookings and scheduling are centrally controlled, yet the firm's attorneys and staff across the country and the world can request reservations and obtain status and visibility instantly. WSGR can rest assured its booking and scheduling needs are met, and focus entirely on the legal representation of their clients.

Benefits

- Centralized, consistent scheduling practices worldwide
- Streamlines room scheduling process
- Efficient usage of rooms and resources

“ It is extremely useful to have a tool that allows easy creation of meeting and resource bookings. The user interface is well-designed and allows for modifications in easy-to-use tabs. The simplicity of it all and the fact that Asure Software listens to my concerns is really important to me.”

Meeting Room Manager is the easiest-to-use, most customizable, room, resource and appointment scheduling software available.

Meeting Room Manager provides administrators with tools to automate the entire scheduling process, and customize it to meet their organization’s unique requirements.

The solution

After painstaking investigations, Helen Tetreault, Telecommunications Manager, recommended AsureSpace™ Meeting Room Manager as the best solution for managing schedules across the firm’s eight locations. Helen wanted to keep booking centralized while allowing each branch the freedom to view schedules and request bookings. Helen serves as the primary Meeting Room Manager administrator. She has a contact at each firm location to help manage bookings.

The software allows for easy and consistent bookings to facilitate communications among the firm’s attorneys, staff and clients, whether members are traveling to and from the various destinations or teleconferencing across the country and the world. The attorneys and staff simply forward their requests to the local administrative contact, who, in turn, confirms availability and secures the necessary resources.

The results

Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati demanded an “all-in-one” scheduling software package that offered painless implementation, ease-of-use, powerful and robust features, and flexible customization features. Meeting Room Manager fit the bill perfectly.

Meeting Room Manager is the ideal software to help facilitate the vital function of managing bookings and scheduling facilities. This allows law firms of all sizes to produce favorable results for their clients.
