

STREAMLINE OFFICE EFFICIENCY

with Hoteling and Telecommuting

Today's workforce is moving from sitting in the same desk every day to working from anywhere—and that means your office should too. Office hoteling programs offer a simple solution to support a mobile workforce with integrated tools for easy access.

Office hoteling and telecommuting have grown exponentially. You may call it agile working, desk sharing, hot desking, virtual working, or hired space. Whatever you call it, office hoteling and telecommuting programs are the perfect balance between employee flexibility and cost efficiency.

NOWSPACE APP: HOTELING MADE

With the NowSpace App, you can track

- space utilization
- measure program performance
- visualize trends
- and analyze usage behavior.

This easy-to-use app cuts down on unused workstations and meeting areas, enabling you to check room statuses and schedule future meetings.

“We were able to move our staff of 320 people into a space with 180 desks, bringing our ratio to almost 2:1. As well we saved £400,000 ($650,000US) annually.”

Clients typically reduce real estate overhead by 35-50%.

The NowSpace app pinpoints underutilized office spaces, leaving you free to enhance or update less desirable workspaces. With this solution, you can migrate from a fixed-space to a cost-effective variable workspace model, adapting to change and ensuring employee satisfaction.
